

21 January, 2025

RECOMMENDATION LETTER

Starting from January 2023, we cooperate with Private Entrepreneur Vadym Martseniuk. Vadym Martseniuk the following legal services were provided: development of documentation: contracts, annexes, acts, letters, etc.; documentation audit; conducting negotiations with clients/counterparts; carrying out a study of British/USA legislation in the field of advertising and conducting contests; conducting negotiations with counterparties/clients; legal assistance in carrying out brokerage activities; development of documentation for the site (Privacy Policy and Terms of Use), provision of legal support to the company.

We, ACROSS THE AWARD LLP, are honored to recommend the professional who provided us with legal services in the field of investment in the United Kingdom and the United States.

During our cooperation, Vadym Martseniuk demonstrated deep knowledge of international investment law, as well as the ability to effectively navigate the peculiarities of British and US legislation. His experience in legal support of investment attraction processes, structuring of deals, as well as in solving legal aspects related to local regulations and tax issues has become indispensable for our company. Thanks to the high level of expertise of Vadym Martseniuk, we were able to successfully navigate the complex legal systems of the United States and Britain, which allowed us to make sound investment decisions. His assistance in preparing contracts, structuring deals, and assessing potential risks in the investment process significantly reduced legal and financial risks for our company.

We have no doubts in recommending Vadym Martseniuk as a highly qualified specialist in the field of investment law in the United Kingdom and the USA. His professionalism and deep understanding of the international legal environment are invaluable for any company that plans to invest in these countries.

During our cooperation, Vadym Martseniuk demonstrated a high level of professionalism, in particular in the research and analysis of the legal framework of the US and British jurisdictions, which allowed us to correctly organize and conduct tender procedures, complying with all the necessary requirements of the law. His deep understanding of both the general principles of law and the specific requirements for the organization of contests and other forms of competition in the United States and Great Britain has become an integral part of our success.

Thanks to the professionalism of Vadym Martseniuk, we were able to effectively adapt our activities to the requirements of the FCA (Financial Conduct Authority) and other regulatory bodies, as well as timely take into account changes in the legislation related to the activities of brokers. His help in drawing up and checking contracts, as well as consulting on compliance with financial services standards, have become indispensable for our company.

Without a doubt, we recommend Vadym Martseniuk as a highly qualified specialist in the legal field. His deep knowledge in the field of investment and financial law makes him an invaluable partner for any organization working in this field.

Sincerely Yours,
Director
ACROSS THE AWARD LLP

Ivan Omelchenko